How To Write Your Story

1. Every story needs a Title. What is the Title of your New Story in Christ?
2. Every story needs an index of chapters that organizes the book. What are the chapters of your New Story in Christ? Here is a guide that you can choose to use or not use:
  - My Concept of God
  - Truth I Have Received from God
  - My Identity in Christ
  - My Qualities and Character
  - My Transferable Skills and Talents
  - My Spiritual Gifts
  - My Gifts of the Spirit
  - My Values and Priorities
  - My Blessings
  - My Destiny and Legacy
  - Truths from My Meditation on Scriptures
3. Now that you have selected your chapters, start by writing one chapter at a time. Use the attached guide to help you pray and listen for God's truth. As you hear God's revelation, write down the words that you receive and think about what the word means to you. Then go to your life experience and find a memory, story or experience that will illustrate the point. Record the meaning and the illustration in the workbook.
4. As you author your story in the chapter, you can use a whole variety of techniques to express your New Story. You can use photos, poems, songs, drawings, diaries, and words, phrases, expressions, Scripture and any approach you find helpful that will communicate your truths.
5. The first attempt at writing your story is just a beginning. Don't worry about trying to make it perfect. Your story will develop over time. You will add to it and enhance it with new realizations and understandings.
6. Once you have an initial draft of your New Story, you need to find a safe person with whom you can share your story. It is important to tell your story because that is how it becomes stronger. Every story needs an audience. Find a person who is an encourager and ask them to listen to your story. As you express the words, describe the pictures and explain what it all means to you, your New Story will gain strength. Some avenues for telling your story are:

1) thanking God in prayer	4) explaining the meaning to your spouse/partner
2) sharing in a fellowship group	5) telling your children
3) writing in your diary	6) sharing your testimony at church

“I waited patiently for the Lord; he turned to me and heard my cry. He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand. He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God.” (Psalm 40:1-3)

“Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits – who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion, who satisfies your desires with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.” (Psalm 103:2-5)

“Because he loves me, “says the Lord, “I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him. With long life will I satisfy him and show him my salvation.” (Psalm 91:14-16)

“But now, this is what the Lord says – he who created you, he who formed you; fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. “You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.” (1 John 4:4)
